

MURDER CASE ENDS WITH THE VERDICT

PORT WASHINGTON MAN IS CONVICTED.

Wagenknecht is Found Guilty of Killing Helms—Crime Was Murder in the Second Degree—Many State Cities Snow-bound—Some Specials From the State.

Port Washington, March 13.—[Special]—Ferdinand Wagenknecht was found guilty of murder in the second degree this morning.

On December 26 he shot and killed John Helms, a Grafton farmer. Robbery was his motive.

Sentence will be pronounced next Wednesday.

Ashland, Wis., March 13.—Joseph McCougall and John Langlade were brought before United States Commissioner Tomkins by Deputy United States Marshal Meehan, on the charge of selling liquor to Hattie Lapointe and Lizzie Deonnie, Indian squaws. They were released under $250 bonds each.

SEVERE STORM IN THE STATE.

Trains Were Delayed and There Was Much Suffering and Damage.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 13.—Reports from other cities of the state tell of the severity of the storm. At Ashland all trains were late and walking was almost impossible. Searching parties are out looking for two men who are thought to have been frozen to death.

Reports of suffering and damage come from Plainfield, Grantsburg, Hudson, Black River Falls, Anshap and Rhinelander. At the latter place two feet of snow fell.

County Judge Gets a Verdict.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 13.—Judge Burnell, today, handed down his decision in the case of A. E. Richter, ex county judge of Fond du Lac county, against Louise Rhoades of this city, finding for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,741.50. The suit grew out of the settlement of the estate of J. S. Emerson of Fond du Lac, of which Elias Rhoades, husband of defendant, was trustee and a portion of which was lost in the handling.

A Sabbath Ticket.

Oshkosh, Wis., March 13.—Developments indicate that the Sabbath association will put a municipal ticket in the field, this spring through some of the officers are opposed to it.

Stevens Point, Wis., March 13.—Captain William Asher of the American Volunteers, rented a building here, and next week will establish the state headquarters of the new army in this city. He will be assisted by his wife and Captain Jennie Hampson.

Wildcats Were Imported.

Green Bay, Wis., March 13.—The paying of a $3 bounty on wildcats has been stopped by Brown county, a resolution to that effect having been adopted by the county board now in session here. It is claimed that the dead animals were being imported from neighboring counties where no bounty is paid.

Skull Crushed by a Tree.

Stevens Point, Wis., March 13.—While engaged chopping wood in a forest near the city last evening, John Czerwinski, aged 20, was struck by a falling limb. His skull was crushed and he died in a few hours.

Hanged Himself in a Cellar.

Black River Falls, Wis., March 13.—Edward Lewis an old settler and farmer who reside about three miles south of Alma Center, committed suicide by hanging himself in his cellar.

FLOOD DAMAGE $6,000,000.00.

Railroad Through-Train Service Resumed

—Repairing Tracks.

Louisville, Ky., March 13.—The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railway has 1,000 men at work repairing its track. Through trains between Cincinnati and St. Louis will now be run by the way of Louisville, leaving Cincinnati on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern tracks, entering Louisville by way of the Big Four bridge, leaving for the west over the St. Louis Air Line, and resuming its own tracks at Fairfield, Ill. The Monon had fully restored its service and the Pennsylvania is also making schedule time. During the flood all these roads used the track of the Big Four in and out of Louisville. The damage to the railroads done by the floods is estimated at $3,000,000 and the damage to county and individuals in the flooded district is estimated to be $3,000,000 more.

Fatal Hotel Fire in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 13.—Fire broke out in the Chicago House, No. 125 Washington street, Friday night. Two men were suffocated in their beds. They were Teddy O'Donnell and William Hanrahan, boarders at the hotel. O'Donnell is a Buffalo man. Hanrahan is from Cleveland. Other inmates had narrow escapes.

THE CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Report is Very Satisfactory.

New York, March 13. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "It is a curious illustration of human nature, this continued discouragement, even while the increase of productive industries and of legitimate business steadily grows. No genuine or lasting improvement could come otherwise than slowly and step by step after such a depression as the past four years have witnessed, and the most hopeful feature of the situation is that the gain is so nearly devoid of elements which involve unsoundness and probable reaction.

"The first step toward prosperity is to get the wheels started and the hands employed, and the number of works which have resumed or increased their forces during the past week seems greater than in any other week since November. While the start has been secured in many cases by contracts at extreme low prices, involving some reduction in wages, the hands are earning more even so, and aid more in the general recovery, than if not working at all, and thus far important strikes have been avoided in many cases, though some are still threatened.

"The money market continues especially favorable to industrial recovery, and there is no such speculative epidemic as to lock up an excessive share of available capital.

"The annual statements of wheat in farmers' hands March 1 have not in the least stimulated speculation. Those commonly considered worthy of attention indicate that farmers' and commercial supplies together, 196,000,000 to 206,000,000 bushels, exceed the estimated home demand, 130,000,000 bushels to July 1, by much more than the quantity likely to be wanted for export in view of the continued outgo of corn. Wheat exports from the Atlantic ports in two weeks have been 2,431,747 bushels, against 2,921,097 bushels last year. Western receipts are but 3,451,369 bushels for the two weeks, against 4,567,392 bushels last year, and they are still so large for the season as to discredit alarms about speedy exhaustion of the supply. The price has declined 3½ cents for the week and corn is a fraction lower.

"Cotton is not active, though a sixteenth higher, for the curtailment of consumption by many mills does not yet help prices in the least, nor does the suspension of print cloth reports, and dealers so generally hold back orders for other goods that the tone is weak.

"The speculation in wool continues. While there is much trade between dealers manufacturers show by purchasing far beyond their wants the belief that larger business is coming.

"Iron furnaces March 1 were producing 169,986 tons weekly, 7,027 tons or 4 per cent more than Feb. 1, and, although visible stocks have increased 30,024 tons in four weeks, still more furnaces have started this month. With the advent of spring weather and outdoor work much more business is expected.

"Failures for the past week have been 256 in the United States, against 300 last year, and 61 in Canada, against 60 last year."

Knock-Out Blow Was Fatal.

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 13.—Privates Collie and O'Shay of the Eighth United States Infantry, stationed here, had a sparring match last night. In the first round O'Shay struck Collie a half-hook blow below the temple. Collie fell to the floor dead, his neck having been broken by the blow. Both men were slightly intoxicated. O'Shay is in custody, and will be tried for murder in the United States court.

Lutheran Conference Meets.

Burlington, Iowa, March 13.—The Evangelical Lutheran conference is in session here with a large number of pastors and delegates from all over Iowa. There are also a number present from the Illinois and Iowa conferences. Rev. M. P. Oden of Alta, Iowa, was elected president.

Russians and Turks Fight.

Berlin, March 13.—A dispatch received here from Yalta, in the Crimea, reports that a sanguinary encounter has taken place there between Russians and Turks. Many shops were demolished. A number of the wounded men have been arrested.

Nebraska Will Spend $100,000.

Lincoln, Neb., March 13.—The senate favorably considered the Omaha exposition appropriation bill. After full consideration it was recommended to pass. The bill appropriates $100,000. This practically secures the appropriation, as the bill has already passed the house.

Woman's Suffrage Defeated.

Lincoln, Neb., March 13.—In the House Friday a bill to extend the franchise, giving women the right to vote at municipal elections, was defeated by a vote of 50 to 40. One additional vote would have adopted the bill.

Aims at the Gold Clause.

Lincoln, Neb., March 13.—The House Friday passed Wooster's bill prescribing what shall be a legal tender in Nebraska. This bill is intended to prevent the insertion of the gold clause in contracts, notes or mortgages.

J. D. O'HARA is improving.

NORTHWEST BURIED 'NEATH THE SNOW

SOME OF THE DRIFTS ARE TEN FEET DEEP.

Railroad Traffic is Completely Paralyzed—Coal Famine Beginning to Be Felt—Floods Continue, and Much Damage is Done—Water Rises at Memphis—Storm News.

Huron, S. D., March 13.—The railroads in this part of the state were never so effectually blocked by snow as they are now, Thursday's storm being one of the worst ever experienced in South Dakota. In many places the tracks are under from ten to fifteen feet of snow, and the drifts are miles long. The rotary snowplows are ready to start out as soon as the weather permits. Should the cold continue many days much suffering will result in localities where fuel and feed for stock are limited. Seeding over most of the state east of the Missouri river will be three weeks later than usual because of the snow, which is from four to five feet deep on the level.

SUFFERING IN MANY TOWNS.

Minnesota and North and South Dakota Snowed Up.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 13.—Specials to the Journal from the Dakotas and western Minnesota show that the snow of Thursday night did more actual damage than any other of this winter, one that has never been equalled in the costs it has levied on railroads. Wednesday of this week, after almost herculean struggles, several of the roads opened their lines and began moving freight to towns where food and fuel famines existed. Now the storm has blocked everything. Freight cars are stalled in all parts of the three states. Scarcely a passenger train is moving north of central South Dakota. Much stock on moving trains has been killed, and thousands of head of cattle are reported dying in eastern South Dakota. Northern Minnesota loggers are all forced out of the woods and work will cease.

Flood Increases at Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., March 13.—In the last twelve hours a rise of seven-tenths of a foot is noticed in the Mississippi river, with little prospects of a cessation. River steamers, both through and local, are making landings never before attempted, and in some instances boats touch at points forty miles inland. A private levee on the Neely cotton plantation, ten miles above here, has failed to resist the powerful current. All live stock in that section has been removed to the hills.

Storm in Upper Peninsula.

Ishpeming, Mich., March 13.—The worst storm in five years is raging in the upper peninsula. Freight trains are blocked on both the South Shore and Chicago & Northwestern lines. A freight train on the latter road has been fast in a drift at the Buffalo mine. Fifty men are now at work clearing the track. In some places the snow is from six to ten feet deep, with drifts rapidly growing larger.

New Tariff Bill Will Authorize the President to Encourage Foreign Trade.

Washington, March 13.—The reciprocity principle which will be embodied in the new tariff bill will be that of lower duties on certain classes of goods in return for concessions for certain lines of American goods. The principle lines of goods on which duties may be lowered by reciprocity treaties will be sugar, champagnes, silks, gloves, mineral waters, chickie (much of which is imported for chewing gum) and argil or crude tartar, which is one of the chief constituents of baking powders. The president will be empowered by the bill to enter into treaties by which the duties will be materially lowered on importation of these goods from countries which make concessions to American cattle and other products. There will be no reciprocity which involves placing any important classes of imports on the free list nor any authority given the executive to raise duties against imports from countries which refuse to enter into reciprocity treaties.

New York Firemen Hurt.

New York, March 13.—The janitorial department of the tannery concern of Blanchard Bros. & Lane of Newark was burned Friday, and one employe and four firemen were injured. The department occupied a two and one-half story frame building. Thomas Kane, a workman, had his hands and arms severely burned.

Democrats Will Not Interfere.

New York, March 13.—Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota in an interview here said: "The silver republicans, Senators Mantle, Jones of Nevada, Cannon, Teller and myself, will not do anything to delay or hinder the adoption of a protective tariff law. There are a number of democrats who will be just as considerate."

Overpowered the Watchman.

Springfield, Ill., March 13.—Last night burglars overpowered the watchman at the Springfield Furniture Company's here, blew open the safe, but got but little of value. The concussion broke windows in many adjacent buildings.

CRUISERS TO STAY NEAR THE ISLAND

GREEK WARSHIPS NOT TO BE WITHDRAWN.

Commanders Are Instructed to Fight to the Death—Powers Have Not Yet Reached a Solution of the Cretan Trouble—The People Against the Powers.

London, March 13.—The correspondent of the London Times at Canea says:

"The Greek cruisers Alphas and Pionios are still in Cretan waters and in a most difficult position. Their commanders' express orders are only to retire from Canea bay under protest, but on no account to leave Cretan waters. They are ordered to resist to the death any attack upon them, for the honor of the Greek flag and nation, which reposes confidence in the sons of heroes."

The latter allusion refers to the fact that the Greek commanders are descendants of the Greek chiefs, Kondouriotis and Miaulis.

The cruisers are hourly expected to be fired upon. They are not allowed to revictual their crews. The men are living on biscuits and beans, and the officers have not slept for three nights.

Every man has written a letter of farewell to his relatives. It is probable that the Alphas will take the risk of a visit to another port for the purpose of revictualing.

The foreign Admirals went into the Apokorona district Friday afternoon to interview the insurgent chiefs. It appears that the Admirals and Consuls have already discussed the proclamation of autonomy since the Porte has agreed to it; but the powers are not yet in unison as to details, and, therefore, it is impossible to make an official proclamation.

It is now proposed to extend the Turkish cordons and to settle within them, on properties of local Beys, refugees from Candamo.

NO SOLUTION REACHED.

Powers Still Bickering About Blockade of Crete.

Paris, March 13.—The following semi-official announcement was made Friday afternoon. The powers, while united in principle, have not as yet been able to reach a solution of the Cretan question. Proposals and objections are being exchanged hourly. The program drawn up by the admirals in Cretan waters is as follows:

"1. A blockade of the island of Crete.

"2. A blockade of the Piraeus and some of the other Greek ports.

"3. The seizure by a detachment of the fleet of the telegraph offices at Syra.

"4. Any Greek warships encountered are to be taken to the island of Milo and kept there.

"5. Any Greek warships firing on any foreign warships are to be sunk, and the act to be considered casus belli.

"6. Any Greek torpedo boat nearing a foreign warship is to be fired at.

"7. As the blockade of Greece will require all the crews of foreign warships, each power is to send to Crete a battalion of infantry not less than 600 men in number.

People Against the Powers.

London, March 13.—A great meeting was held Friday evening at St. James' Hall to protest against the proposal of the powers to apply coercion to Greece. Resolutions denouncing this policy were adopted with enthusiasm after strong speeches by Herbert Gladstone, John Dillon, Henry Labourche, and others. Mr. Gladstone wired from Cannes to the meeting: "God help your efforts."

To Purchase American Warships.

Constantinople, March 13.—In semi-official circles here it is positively asserted that the administration of the Sultan's civil list is negotiating with the United States government for the purchase of two or three ironclads, which have already been completed in the United States, and it is added that the sum of $200,000 has already been paid on account.

Turk Once More Sheds Blood.

London, March 13.—The Times correspondent at Constantinople states that the news of bloodshed at Everek, a village near Kalerich, has been received by the Porte and foreign embassies. As yet details are lacking, but all reports go to show that the situation in that region is most lamentable.

Russia Shows Her Hand.

Constantinople, March 13.—Advices received here from Erzerum say that large forces of Russian troops are concentrating on the Armenian frontier in the direction of Sarikamich in the District of Kars.

New Municipal Party for Chicago.

Chicago, March 13.—Washington Hesing was nominated for mayor of Chicago by a new municipal party formally launched at Central Music hall Friday night. The fourth regular ticket placed before the people was named by what is termed the "Business Administration in Municipal Affairs" party, and this appellation will be used on the official ballot. A full city ticket was placed in the field.

DR. EFTING IS ALSO DEAD.

Chicago, Perished in the Railroad Disaster Near Deckers, Ind.

Vincennes, Ind., March 13.—It is now certain that five lives were lost in the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad disaster at White River, near Deckers. They were:

CONDUCTOR SEARS.

FIREMAN BOLEMAN.

HERBERT ALLEN, Evansville, Ind.

WILLIAM H. LANG, Fort Wayne, Ind.

DR. WILLIAM F. EFTING of No. 6425 South Halsted street, Chicago.

Dr. Efting left home on that train for Winter Haven, Fla., and has never been heard from. Though it is known that he was on that train no man answering his description was among the saved. The crevasse is now 800 feet wide and is growing bigger every hour. A force of 250 men are at work, but the roadbed is being steadily swept away.

Gov. Pingree Loses a Point.

Lansing, Mich., March 13.—The Supreme court has denied the contention of Attorney-General Maynard that he should not be required to petition for a mandamus directing the Detroit council to call a special election for mayor. The court directed him to permit the use of his name as petitioner, but relieved him from any further responsibility in the matter. The council was ordered to show cause Wednesday why the mandamus should not issue, and, although he appears as the nominal petitioner, Attorney-General Maynard will make an argument in support of his contention that no vacancy exists in the office of mayor of Detroit, by reason of Pingree's qualifying as governor, and that no special election should be held.

New Grouping of Powers.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—It is stated in official circles here that the opposition of Great Britain, and more particularly that of France, was what prevented the adoption of the proposal to occupy Crete with 10,000 European troops. Greece, it is understood, is relying upon the effect of public opinion in Great Britain and France, and a sort of threat is held out here that by a persistence in this policy France is endangering the entente with Russia, and that both Great Britain and France may find themselves in an unenviable isolation opposed to a new grouping of Russia, Austria and Germany.

Another Alderman Under Indictment.

Louisville, Ky., March 13.—Beside the five aldermen indicted Thursday with Banker McKnight by the federal grand jury Alderman G. G. Triek was indicted, making six aldermen, all of whom are members of the big seven which signed a contract to control legislation and divide the profits with McKnight. Alderman Reeder, the other party to the compact, turned state's evidence, and it was by his information that the indictments were obtained. Triek has not yet been arrested. Warrants have been served in all the other cases and bonds given, except in the case of McKnight, who seems to be unable to raise the $13,000 additional bond required.

Woman 'Cowboy' Is Dead.

Perry, O. T., March 13.—Mrs. Clara Omo, a western "cowboy," who claimed to have killed five men during her career, is dead at her home here, aged 56 years. She was a Miss Martin and was born in New York City, moving to Eldorado, Kan., with her parents when a child. Her most desperate encounter took place in Little Blacktail canyon, near Butte, Mont., in February, 1890, when she killed Ed Smith. Smith found the woman alone and fought her with a hunting-knife. Mrs. Omo used a pistol.

Ex-Treasurer Fair in Jail.

Butler, Ind., March 13.—Ex-County Treasurer Fair was arrested Friday, charged with embezzlement. His bond was put at $22,000, and he had to go to jail. It is alleged that he turned the office over to his successor $12,000 short. His son, who was deputy, is under arrest, accused of forgery, but is out on bail. This makes the seventh ex-county officer to be placed under arrest in connection with the DeKalb county crookedness, and it is said that several private citizens will be added to the list.

Signs of War at Montevideo.

Montevideo, March 13.—The national guard has been ordered to mobilize. A detachment of the national troops on the northwest frontier has defeated the provincial police who mutinied. It is rumored that Uruguay is negotiating with Chili for an offensive and defensive alliance on the ground that Argentina has given aid to the revolutionary movements.

Jennie Doty May Recover.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—Oliver Cousins of Middletown, O., says he is engaged to Jennie Doty, who attempted to commit suicide at the Grand hotel Thursday. He declares he never mistreated the girl, and is unable to offer any explanation for her act. Miss Doty has recovered consciousness, but refuses to answer questions.

Corwine Secures a Continuance.

Newport, R. I., March 13.—John Corwine, paymaster of the naval station here, who is accused of obtaining money under false pretenses, was granted a continuance until March 23.

HOWE IS SENTENCED TO A CELL FOR LIFE

DARIEN MURDERER GETS FULL PENALTY.

Protested His Innocence, and a Motion For a New Trial Will Be Made—Closing Chapter in the Case of the Walworth County Fratricide.

Elkhorn, Wis., March 13.—Lercy Howe, who was convicted of killing his brother Charles, last May, was sentenced this morning to states prison for life.

Howe claimed his innocence to the last. A motion is to be made for a new trial.

A BIG DISASTER IN WHEAT.

Over Half the Acreage in Illinois Is Winter Killed.

Springfield, Ill., March 13.—Owing to the rumors prevailing over the state since early in January as to the extent of the injury to winter wheat by winter-killing, the Illinois state board of agriculture asked for reports on the subject from correspondents in the wheat belt, the summary of which is given below. The reports corroborate the prevailing opinions and an unfortunate condition is noted. The reports of damaging from this source vary from 15 per cent of the area seeded to the entire amount, the average being 59 per cent of the area. Last fall 1,479,000 acres were reported seeded, and if the estimate of damage is confirmed but 682,000 acres will be left for harvest. In many counties the entire area seeded will be plowed up. A reduction of the area seeded of a million acres which is reported leaves by far the smallest area ever harvested in Illinois. Under the most favorable conditions from now on to harvest there is little reason to hope for more than 10,000,000 bushels' yield in the state, which is not nearly enough to supply the home demand for consumption and seed for the next year's crop.

SPAIN WILL ABANDON CUBA.

Weyler Preparing to Leave the Island to the Insurgents.

Chicago, March 13.—The Record's special correspondent in Cuba sends the following:

Advices from Crittenden Marriott, at Havana, bear out the information previously given that the Spaniards are almost ready to give up their Cuban struggle. Gen. Weyler is leaving many cities to the insurgents, and an order recently issued by him means the abandoning of many more. Cubans believe this indicates that he is preparing to return to Madrid.

St. Louis to Be Headquarters.

St. Louis, Mo., March 13.—It is semi-officially stated that the motion to remove the headquarters of the Sovereign Camp of the Woodmen of the World from Omaha, Neb., will be carried and that St. Louis will be chosen. Thursday was spent in revising the constitution. The section of the constitution debarring liquor dealers from membership was reaffirmed. The question of admitting to the order an extra hazardous class, such as firemen, railroad men, steamboat men and others is being considered. The Woodmen's Circle, ladies' auxiliary to the Woodmen of the World, wound up the work of their convention by the election of officers. The convention adjourned to meet in Memphis two years hence.

Burglars Enter an Iowa Bank.

Dexter, Iowa, March 13.—Burglars entered the State Bank of Dexter at an early hour Friday morning with tools stolen from the Rock Island section-house and Houck's blacksmith shop. They broke through the wall of the vault, two feet in thickness, and then, by the use of dynamite, attempted to open the safe. They succeeded in shattering the outer part of the safe door and ruining the safe, but were probably compelled by approaching daylight to abandon the job at that point.

Tax Cases Denied a Rehearing.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—The supreme court has denied a rehearing in the last of the Western Union telegraph tax cases, in which the state recovered judgment for $28,014.20 taxes for 1895 and $14,007.10 penalty for failure to pay when due. The other cases involving taxes and penalties for former years are pending on appeal to the federal supreme court.

Bribery Charges Fall Flat.

Topeka, Kan., March 13.—Charges of bribery made against legislators in connection with the passage of the stock yards bill will never be pushed, the house having voted to discharge its members of the committee previously appointed to investigate. Every member of the ways and means committee was opposed to any action on that subject.

Waiting Gets a Reprieve.

Frankfort, Ky., March 13.—It is officially announced that Gov. Bradley has refused Scott Jackson's appeal for executive clemency, and an unofficial announcement that he has reprieved Alonzo Walling to some unknown date.

THE WEEK'S WORK
AT THE CAPITOLMR. BUCKSTAFF'S REQUEST
BEARS FRUIT.

He Urged the Pushing of the Business—Mr. Fogo's Speech was a Sensational One—Pool Selling Measure to Pass—The New Libel Law—Some Other Measures.

MADISON, Wisconsin, March 13.—[Special.]—April 15 is the earliest date now set for the adjournment of the legislature, and there is considerable doubt as to whether it will be possible to finish the work by that time. Speaker Buckstaff's "jacking up" at the beginning of the week has had the result of getting more work from the assembly committees, where most of the delay is caused, but many important bills after being reported are sent back to the committee as a matter of courtesy to some member who has constituents who want a further hearing, the consequence being that much valuable time is lost, as it is seldom if ever that a different report is secured. Sometimes this is accomplished by having the bill sent to a different committee, but even if a different report is secured there the chances for the bill are slim.

Fogo's Sensational Speech. Interest in the week centered largely in Mr. Fogo's bill to prevent the president of the state university from acting as a member of the board of regents, which developed one of the liveliest debates of the session, and resulted in the death of the bill by a vote of 64 to 31, Mr. Wheeler being among the majority who voted against it. D. F. Jones of Sparta, is given credit for changing many votes by his logical exposition of the matter. If the members could have heard the speech which Mr. Fogo read, in tones so low that they could be heard but a short distance from where he stood, in favor of his bill, there would have been a sensation. His speech was the avenue through which all the abuse which has been heaped upon President Adams and the university regents found its way directly to the attention of the legislators.

Suggests Football Team. His principal complaint against the president was that he took too great an interest in football, and he thought the state could not consistently allow the betting which is incident to football game and then prohibit pool selling on horse races. He said it "might be a good idea to organize a football team with the gentleman from Sauk as chief kicker and the gentleman from Iowa (Regent W. A. Jones) for the stomach crawling part to hold down the pigskin, the balance of the team to be made up either from the board of regents or from the faculty, all under the masterly management, conduct and control of the president."

Pool Selling Law. The anti-pool selling law, which makes the selling of pools on horse races a penal offense in Wisconsin, is likely to become a law. It was sent to engrossment and third reading in the assembly by a vote of sixty to fourteen and if it gets through that body there is but little doubt of its passage by the senate. It will wipe out the Ideal Park crowd which has made Kenosha county a rendezvous for the worst class of Chicago sports and the almost equally disreputable Jockey club which has had the use of the state fair grounds at Milwaukee and give legitimate horse racing a chance for life.

The fish and game bill which was reported by the committee in the senate Tuesday evening, was sent back for further consideration after eight amendments, mostly of a local character, had been adopted. Further amendments are probable before the bill becomes a law. It is impossible to draft a law which will be satisfactory to all sections of the state, and there is always a struggle up to the last moment to secure amendments.

The Bribery Charges. The charges of bribery in connection with the state medical bill, providing for a medical commission to examine candidates, and whose certificate shall be a necessary qualification to practice, are to be investigated, a committee for that purpose having been appointed in the assembly on motion of Mr. Frink. The committee will meet next Wednesday evening, and all persons who have any charges to make are requested to be present and bring them to light.

newspaper a chance to retract and be then liable for only actual damages, is likely to be passed. It was favorably reported by the committee, but when it came up for engrossment and third reading it was sent back on motion of Mr. Lange, who desired some further amendments to meet the desires of the press association.

A VERY PLEASANT SOCIAL

Congregational Young People Entertained at the Parsonage Last Evening.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church, gave a very pleasant social last evening at the home of the pastor, Rev. Robert C. Denison. A musical program was a feature, it being as follows:

Gentlemen's Quartette.....Prof. H. C. Buell, Ralph Buell, Prof. H. L. Brown, F. A. Spoon.
Violin Solo.....Ralph Buell
Vocal Solo.....Miss Jeannette Lynt
Ladies' Quartette.....Miss Jeannette Lynt, Mrs. R. A. Denison, Miss Jeannette Lynt, Miss Frances Edwards, Miss Jennie Spoon.
Vocal Selection.....Prof. H. C. Buell
Piano Solo.....Miss Marcia Withington
"The Three Lovers," by Will Carlton, was given in a shadow pantomime, accompanied by reading.

The young men of the Baptist church were the hosts at the church parlors last evening and a very pleasant evening was spent. Hot biscuits and maple syrup were served. G. A. Shurtliff being in charge at the oven. A musical program was presented prior to the supper. A song by a male quartette consisting of Messrs. Honeysett, Snyder, Grove and Whiffen opened the entertainment, Miss Maria Snyder playing the accompaniment, and was followed by a recitation by Mr. Butterfield, a vocal solo by Charles Snyder, and a zither solo by Norton Wells. Then came the banquet, the waiters being Will Douglas, Will Garlock, Eugene Currier, Edson Baker, Glen Snyder and Walter Clark. Previous to the serving of the supper, Miss Nellie Smiley announced that insurance policies would be issued to all the partakers, and Miss Maud McDonald read over the provisions of the document. The entertainment was as novel as it was enjoyable.

"Dr. Bill" at the Myers.

"Dr. Bill" is one of the funniest comedies ever written, but much depends upon the company presenting it. The combination seen at the Myers Grand last evening, was hardly equal to the task, although it was not the worst company ever seen here, by a good deal. The musical numbers could not be effective. The company did not furnish music for accompaniments, and both Professor Charles Smith and Miss Stevens were forced to improvise. This fact prevented both musician and singer from doing themselves justice.

The Art League's Exhibit.

The annual exhibition of the Janesville Art League yesterday, was a success in the fullest sense of the word. The League has now been in existence for four years, and during that time, it has accomplished much. The shown yesterday, was a revelation to the people who saw the exhibit, and reflected much credit on the members of the organization.

FARMER IS CHASED

MISTAKE.

Tried to Collect the Poll Tax From a Man Who Didn't Live in His Town Runaway Couple Balked at Beloit Rev. F. A. Marsh Dead County News.

Beloit, Wis., March 13.—[Special.]—Residents of the eastern part of this city and along certain roads of the town of Turtle were surprised Thursday afternoon at beholding a Shojiere officer giving a hot chase after a citizen of Clinton. Few people knew, however, who the men were, and a feeling gained ground that the Jess. James' or the Cole Brothers' gang were being overhauled.

The episode created considerable excitement even after matters were understood. The officer was Charles Shimmell, a constable of Shojiere, and the person chased was F. A. Lawson of the town of Clinton. Shimmell is the collector of the poll tax for the town of Turtle, and claims that Lawson owed tax, and showed by the way he goes about business that he proposes that the town of Turtle shall have the money due from that bore to the tax payer, the poll tax. It is said that the collector saw Mr. Lawson driving along the road and made after him in another carriage, and a lively race ensued. Finally Shimmell overtook Lawson and demanded the money and threatened to seize the horses he was driving. Lawson insisted that he did not live in Shimmell's town now and the rig was act his and took off his coat to defend his property, when the Shojiere officer drew his revolver and persuaded Lawson to surrender his property. Lawson engaged a lawyer and the result was that the imprudent officer has returned the team to Mr. Lawson and has agreed to indemnify him to the extent of $10 and costs for the trouble and humiliation endured. Mr. Lawson did live in Turtle but now resides in the town of Clinton. The officer overreached when he seized the property of another to satisfy the demand of the town.

RUNAWAY COUPLE IN TROUBLE.

Groom to be Charged with Having a Wife—Other Line City News.

Beloit, Wis., March 13.—Parties to another runaway match are in grief in Beloit, and Antonio Ott, a pretty freepart girl, who was married to Horace Wilson of Chicago by a police justice, Wednesday, does not know whether she is a wife or not.

The young couple stole away to Beloit to be married, and yesterday a relative of the bride came forward and accuses the groom of having a wife in Chicago. Wilson says he was married, but is free from that union now.

The bride returned home yesterday and the groom has gone to Chicago to try and furnish his wife proof of his right to marry her.

Beloit, Wis., March 13.—The Rev. F. A. Marsh, aged fifty-three years, died at his residence in this city, yesterday, of consumption. He was a successful Baptist pastor in Beloit from 1880 to 1887, when, because of failing health, he went to Colorado, where he was a pastor until he returned to Beloit recently. He was a pastor at Fond du Lac, Wis., and Waverly and Independence, Ia., before coming to Beloit. He leaves a wife and three children.

Beloit, Wis., March 13.—Grand Recorder Leslie and other Grand officers of the Knights Templar inspected Beloit commandery last night. Sir knights were present from several surrounding towns.

Beloit, Wis., March 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Halstead, early settlers of this county, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary yesterday by a reception to old friends.

Beloit, March 13.—[Special.]—Athletic enthusiasts are in high spirits over the outcome of the state oratorical contest held in this city last night, as Harry P. Hinkley the captain of the Beloit college football team, won first honors, and will represent Wisconsin in the inter-state contest to be held in May. George B. Baldwin of Appleton University, was awarded second place, and Miss Lulu M. Dysart of Ripon, third place. A large audience attended the exercises and student friends of the various speakers were numerous and encouraged their favorites with college yells. Big delegations of students accompanied the speakers from Ripon and Appleton. An effort is being made to have the inter-state contest held in Beloit, with good chance of success.

THE EDGERTON LEAF MARKET.

The Conditions Are About the Same as at Janesville.

Buyers have commenced to withdraw from the growing sections since the hunting after stray lots fails to a complete much headway, says the Edgerton Reporter. Those who are really anxious to add to their holdings find they can deal with packers much more conveniently and with the certainty too of securing what they want. Trading in old leaf therefore is now largely confined to transactions among dealers. These movements are mostly being secretly conducted and somewhat difficult to obtain the details of.

George M. Underhill has purchased for the account of Schroeder & Bon a very choice 600 case lot of '93 and '94 bundles from Ole K Roe. In addition to this he has purchased from other packers about 100 cases.

A. S. Flagg has purchased a 125 case lot of old leaf of A. G. Estes of Madison and about 100 cases from other points during the week.

The shipments from this station to all points for the week reach 10 car loads, or about 500 cases.

Since last report 1,700 cases of cigar leaf were exported from New York.

WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP

A Subject
For Women

That they are particularly interested in just now, CARPETS! It pays to think about it while you have time. You can't hurry through it with satisfaction. Our new carpets are in, you can look them over leisurely, leave your order, have them made carefully before the rush, and delivered at your pleasure; they cost no more, perhaps less.

Organdies, Tissus Brode, London Lappets, Chatillon Stripes, Mimosa, Spiral Dimity, &c.

Not a Day Too Early

But early enough. We invite an early inspection of these spring beauties. You will be glad to see what the season of '97 has to offer. If you buy now you will be glad later on when the bright spring days find you prepared to enjoy them, and all done without a bit of hurry or worry.

Embroideries—

It is a pleasure to muse among the new embroideries. It is the ladies' privilege to tumble them about and we enjoy seeing them do it. We especially invite every lady in town to toss these dainty trifles to their heart's content. The little prices on them should make them all the more interesting.

A Bouquet of Spring Beauties.

It is an odd title perhaps, but an appropriate name for first offering of spring goods. There is an array of spring loveliness in this store that is heart warming, like the first sunburst after a storm, you'll forget bleak winter and forgive its frosts because it is followed by such sweets as these first harbingers of spring.

A Sensible Spring
Precaution

Is a MACKINTOSH and UMBRELLA. Thus prepared you may defy the changeable spring time. Time was when these simple wet-weather protectors cost so much that we couldn't all afford them. They are a luxury no longer. Progress in manufacture and our prices place them within the reach of all.

Grand
Opening—

ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, we will have a formal opening of our large showings of spring goods. In connection, the agent of a prominent Philadelphia manufacturer will be at the store, and display the newest things in silk waists, spring jackets, separate skirts and two-piece suits in three styles: The boero, Eaton and coat effects. It will be an excellent opportunity to become familiar with fashions for spring. The store will be appropriately trimmed and an orchestra will lend inspiration.

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

GENERAL DOE UNDER FIRE.

Milwaukee Sentinel Speaks of Him and His Work.

The Milwaukee Sentinel prints the following editorial: "The story printed by The New York Sun that our martial friend Joe Doe, has been a mere figurehead in the office of the secretary of war during the last four years has not been denied up to the present time. It is reported by The Sun that Secretary Lamont found that Mr. Doe had conflicting ideas respecting the management of the war department from his own, so that he failed to assign the assistant secretary any duties to perform. The war department has, therefore, been conducted without calling upon the Wisconsin man to take any part in its affairs. Mr. Doe was appointed by Mr. Cleveland at the request of Senator Vilas and his influence is represented to have been strong enough to keep him in his place against the wishes of Secretary Lamont. The Sun says that Mr. Alger has pursued the policy of Secretary Lamont toward the assistant secretary and has ignored him entirely since taking charge of the department.

"It may be that there is some foundation for The Sun's account of the easy life led by Mr. Doe during the last four years. It may be wholly correct for all we know. At the same time it seems improbable that an assistant would have been forced on Secretary Lamont. The latter's relations to Mr. Cleveland are closer than are those of Mr. Vilas, so that Mr. Doe could hardly have been protected against the expressed wishes of Mr. Lamont. The probability is that Secretary Lamont did not choose to seek the removal of his assistant, preferring to assign him merely nominal duties. Such an arrangement appears to have been satisfactory to the assistant secretary, for there has at no time been an intimation from him that he was not pleased with his surroundings in Washington."

A Reputation For High Quality Helps In Business.

Since starting this $1.47 sale on ladies' $3, $3.50 and $4 shoes, we have sold hundreds of pairs. We know a great deal of the quick shoe sale was due to the fact of our never misrepresenting our stock in any of our advertising or through any of the people connected with our house. Of course the low price had much to do with the sale but if people were not satisfied and knew that they were not securing good shoes of late style, they would not buy them at any price. Dr. Hobbs Sparagus.

To be successful against the angel of death, who pounces upon us at every turn, we should keep every organ of the body in the most perfect working order.

This is particularly true of the kidneys, upon the health and activity of which the purity of our blood and our freedom from disease germs depends.

Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills prevent as well as cure Bright's disease and all kidney and bladder troubles and cause the kidneys to filter out of the blood every poison and impurity, whether from imperfectly digested food, malaria, rheumatism or other causes. The kidneys are the standard bearers in the great struggle against death, and Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills their ablest ally.

The Pills are Worth Their Weight in Gold. Quick Cure of a Fond du Lac Lady Where Doctors Failed.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Jan. 11, 1897. I have been troubled for several years with what some physicians pronounce lumbago, some Bright's disease but none of the doctors were able to give me any relief. I saw your advertisement in The Daily Reporter of Fond du Lac and procured a box of Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills. After using these pills according to directions I am prepared to say the trouble has entirely left me, and I honestly believe it to be a permanent cure. The pills are worth their weight in gold. SWINDLER SOLD REAL ESTATE.

He Built Toy Houses and Then Showed a Photograph of the Town.

Here is the real estate man's story: "Talk about swindlers; the best one I ever came across was down in the state at a town called Bingham, or something like that. The town isn't any good, and never will be, but just the same, a fellow has been selling subdivisions lots. Then at one corner of the tract he built up a toy residence addition to the town. He laid out a little roadway about two feet wide, and stuck up little trees along each side of it. On this road he put up some houses, each one foot high. He put in a factory building that was nearly three feet high, and laid water pipes about the size of pipe stems. He had the whole thing photographed, and after the photographer had touched up the picture it indicated a beautiful drive way at least 60 feet wide, with big houses on either side of it. He took these photographs with him and he went on the road to sell the lots. He would say, 'Now, here is a picture of one corner of the subdivision. I have already built twenty houses out there. We have water pipes laid and the street is graveled. Your lot is less than 600 feet from the corner of the factory building here.' You see, he wanted to protect himself in case he was arrested for fraud. The photograph was genuine, and it was true, as he said, that water pipes were laid and houses built. Of course, he did not take the trouble to explain that the houses were no larger than bird cages, and the street not much wider than a plow furrow. Well, he traded four of these lots to a farmer for a drove of young cattle. When the farmer went over to look at the lots he was the maddest man on earth. He had the real estate man arrested for perpetrating a fraud, and I believe they're fighting it out now. The man who sold the lots insists that he told the truth, and backed up his statements with a photograph."—Chicago Record.

India's Hoard of Spoils.

For a long period of years India has been characterized as a "sink hole" of the precious metals, or in other words, there has been for many years a continuous flow of the precious metals—gold and silver—into India—where they have to a large extent disappeared, undoubtedly by burial under ground for the purpose of hoarding and concealment, says a writer in Popular Science. The motive for this under the mogul and native rulers was unquestionably to escape direct plunder or confiscation; but under British rule these hoards, amounting unquestionably to many hundreds of millions, are not taxed, mainly by reason of their inaccessibility and partly by the recognized policy of the government to avoid direct taxation of active capital, and encourage by making safe its employment the tendency of these buried treasures to come to light and enter into the channels of trade. And that this policy has been a wise one is shown by the fact that within recent years there has been an increasing disposition on the part of the Indian owners of concealed treasures—especially the Indian princes or rajahs—to withdraw from their hoarding places and invest them in government bonds or other desirable interest-bearing securities, and in this way a very great addition to the world's active stock of money metals may be anticipated in the perhaps not distant future.

TESTED BY A STAR.

A Curious Method of Regulating a Timepiece.

Some very old printing that was brought to light the other day contains curious suggestions for making certain calculations that will interest many people. One of the suggestions runs to the effect that a person may ascertain his rate of walking by the aid of a string with a piece of lead at one end of it. The string should be knotted at distances of forty-four feet, which distance is the one hundred and twentieth part of an English mile and bears the same proportion to a mile that half a minute bears to an hour. If the traveler, when going at his usual gait, drops the lead, letting the string slip through his hand, the number of knots which have passed in half a minute indicate the number of inches he walks in an hour. An easy method of correctly regulating a timepiece by the stars is suggested as follows:

As the motion of the earth with regard to the fixed stars (those that twinkle) is uniform, timepieces can in a most simple manner be correctly regulated by the stars with greater facility than by the sun. Choose a south window from which any fixed point, such as a chimney, side of a building, etc., may be seen. To the side of the window attach a piece of cardboard having a small hole in it, in such a manner that by looking through the hole toward the edge of the elevated object, some fixed star may be seen. The progress of the star must be watched and the instant it vanishes behind the fixed point, the observer must note the exact time it disappears. The following night the same star will vanish behind the same object three minutes and fifty-six seconds sooner. If a timepiece mark 9 o'clock when the star vanishes one night, the following night it will indicate three minutes and fifty-six seconds less than 9. If the timepiece be faster or slower than the indication of the star, then it has gained or lost the indicated difference. If several cloudy nights follow the first observation of the star, it is only necessary to multiply three minutes fifty-six seconds by the number of days that have elapsed since the observation, and the product deducted from the hour the clock indicates the first night clear enough for the second observation gives the time the clock or watch ought to show. The same star can only be observed during a few weeks, for as it gains nearly an hour in a fortnight, it will in a short time come to the meridian in broad daylight and become invisible. In making the observation care must be taken that a planet is not chosen instead of a star. Additional to the fact that the light of fixed stars twinkles, while that of planets is steady because reflected, a sure means of distinguishing between them is to first watch a certain star attentively for a few nights. If it changes its place with regard to the other stars it is a planet, since the fixed stars appear to maintain the same relative positions with regard to each other.

An Economical Petticoat.

An economical idea is being shown this year in petticoats, one substantial foundation being made to do duty, with several flounces that button on and unbutton for washing purposes. Silk is less used than it was for undergarments, as it is found that once washed it rarely looks well, so the most extravagant dame and damsel ever on the track for novelties, are discarding it, and returning to the old-fashioned, but charming and durable linen or long cloth. There is great demand just now for Irish linen, and linen has this advantage over both silk and cotton, that it is supremely valuable in its old age.—Philadelphia Times.

Found It So.

Hazel—Was your elopement a success?

Leola—The elopement was; but it was followed by a failure. Hazel—What was that? Leola—Our marriage.—Philadelphia Press.

Natural Qualifications.

"Let us send that fellow who stutters so badly to Jones' wife to tell her that Jones is dead."

"What do you want to send him for?" "He will naturally be able to break the news better than any of the rest of us."—N. Y. Journal.

On a Par.

Foster—I read of a man, recently, who brought suit for damages against a newspaper which printed an article that caused him "mental anguish."

Trotter—You don't say—was it a tariff editorial, or an original poem?—Harlem Life.

An Eye to Business.

Lawyer—Mrs. Chicago Avenue has been getting married again.

Clerk—Yes, sir.

Lawyer—Well, keep your eye on her. She has promised me her next divorce case.—Up-to-Date.

A Judgment.

Blinkins—That Billings never told the truth in his life. What lie was he springing on you just now?

Plinkins—He was telling me that you were a scholar and a gentleman.—Philadelphia Press.

Matter of Feeling.

Mr. Blinkins—What? Thirty years old to-morrow? You told the minister who married us only two years ago that you were 18.

Mrs. Blinkins (wearily)—Well, I felt 18 then.—N. Y. Weekly.

Still in the Swim.

"Why is Mrs. Brokely giving such an elaborate reception?"

"Just to show her friends that her husband made a very respectable failure."—Detroit Free Press.

Circumventing the Widows.

"I'm not in mourning," said a young lady frankly to a querist, "but as the widows are getting all the offers nowadays, we poor girls have to resort to artifice."—Tit-Bits.

Speaks for Itself.

"I'm a man that likes to keep my own business strictly to myself."

"Well, then, you ought to quit carrying home packages of coffee in the street car."—Chicago Record.

A Mere Matter of Words.

Clara—He called you "dear" right before all the folks.

Dora—Yes. It made me feel awfully cheap.—Boston Transcript.

She Had Good Reason.

Slumleigh—I don't see why you care so little for me.

Miss Gyer—Have you ever taken a good look at yourself?—Town Topics.

Once Was Enough.

To please his wife he tried her pie, And sampled one of mine; And though five years have wandered by No one has seen him since.

—N. Y. World.

Nearest and Closest.

Willie—Are you the nearest relative I've got, mamma?

Mother—Yes, love, and your pa is the closest relative you've got.—Tit-Bits.

Appreciation.

He—I am going to kiss you the next time I call.

She—You must be neighborly and come often.—Town Topics.

DANGEROUS SURGERY.

Death Follows the Surgeon's Knife—Not the Surgeon's Fault, of Course—He Can't Help It—You Can.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly.

People go along for years suffering with piles. They try this and that and the other thing; from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea and the piles come back.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and that dreadful feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. It is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in light cases it is the safest thing to use. Other applications may cure and may not. Pyramid Cure is always certain, always reliable, always brings comfort at once. Its prompt use saves months of severe suffering. In extreme cases it will save surgical operations and their attendant dangers and discomforts. It is better than a knife. Will cure easier, quicker and safer. Thousands have used it. Thousands have been cured by it. The cost is trifling compared with what it does. The price is 50 cents. Most anybody would gladly pay ten dollars to be rid of piles.

Druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure. If you haven't it will get it for you from the Pyramid Drug Co., of Albion, Mich. (sole manufacturers.)

Denim Gone Out.

Denim, in all colors—that cotton material which has been in such favor for draperies and cushions—has lost its cachet. And what do you suppose has taken its place?

No less or greater a fabric than ticking—ordinary ticking as to weave, but choice and solid hued as to colorings. Old pink, green, blue, new yellow and orange and terra cotta are the tones. The material, as women will recall, has a finish as of satin, and it is especially adapted for its purpose. The price is only 35 cents.

In a house where artistic effects are more desired than expensive ones this material could be put to much service. One or another of the colorings would lighten the bedroom, the dining room, or darken the drawing room, as might be desired.

Charming portieres are made from lengths of it without the least ornamentation. But the beauty is heightened by appliques of white or a lighter or darker shade of the same color.

These appliques are of flowers or figures, and fanciful stitchings blend the pieces set on with the background.

Sofa pillows yet are the most desirable objects in nice needlework. They are large, square, plump. Usually they are made with ruffles of the fabric of the pillow. Yellow, perhaps, is the favorite color. One big ticking pillow had a huge tiger's head embroidered on it in dashes of black where the spots ought to be, and red where the open mouth was, and white where the teeth should show. It was immensely effective, but more suggestive of active life than slumber. However, too much must not be asked of a contemporary sofa pillow. If it is smart and well made, it has fulfilled its mission.—New York Press.

By order WARD COMMITTEE.

UNIVERSITY BILLS.

The republicans in the legislature can afford to vote for any reasonable measure in the interest of the state university. They belong to the party of intelligence and progress, and are expected to do all they can, legally and consistently, to promote the success of all kinds of schools. Money expended for educational purposes is one of the best investments. It is not always possible to make such appropriations as large as they ought to be, on account of a scarcity of revenue, but they should be as liberal as the circumstances will justify, particularly in the case of the university which is for the advantage of the people of the whole state, and which has been deprived of a large share of its rightful revenue by the short-sighted policy of early legislatures.

SHOWMEN HANDLE THE BRUSH

Two Veterans of the Ring Are Now Artistic Decorators.

H. H. Leonard who has been in the circus business for twenty-eight years, and Harry J. Kibler who for fifty years has acted the part of clown are in the city and will remain for several days. They are now in the decorating business and are artists in their line of work. They are here to decorate Hall, Sayles & Fifield new store. This same firm painted a portion of the scenery at Myers Opera House, and their work is also to be seen in the senate chamber at Washington, D. C.

Attention B. of R. T.

A meeting of the mothers, wives and widows, sisters, married or unmarried, are requested to meet at Trainmen's hall over Tea Store at 2:30 p. m., Monday, March 15th. J. J. Dalin, master.

CHICAGO MARKETS BY WIRE.

Mr. Lindblom's Letter.

Chicago, March 13.—[Special]—Wheat has declined nearly 5 cents since last Saturday and recovered two cents. It practically touched seventy-one which we have predicted for some time back and we are now ready to await new developments. Foreign cables are weaker than we are and have not responded to our rally which was caused mainly by a sensational preliminary forecast of the Illinois Agricultural bureau which reports great damage, but adds that the report needs confirmation. The statement is a very extraordinary one if official, but whether it is reliable or not cuts little figure as the market will be governed by what the public believes and the public is bullish, and will believe bullish reports.

As it is a new feature we want to take new views and remain neutral. Wheat has probably touched bottom, but it generally relieves bottom twice, and we would go long below seventy-two cents now the European situation has turned out as I predicted. Russia now holds out in favor of Greece, and France supports Russia. The other nations can do nothing serious. Receipts at primary markets are two hundred thousand less than last week; but reports clearances are also 220,000 less, and are the smallest in recent years. Since they commenced to bulge, it has advanced $1 per barrel, while wheat has declined 12 cents and corn 2 cents. Nothing new to note. Pork will sell at $11 per barrel and corn will not decline much more, if any. The only thing to fear is liquidation of May corn, but there are two sides to that proposition. The visible supply will probably be small and lower the average.

Kentucky Caneus Opens.

Frankfort, Ky., March 13.—Nominating speeches were made placing in nomination W. Godfrey Hunter, Judge William H. Holt, Congressman John W. Lewis and St. John Boyle before the republican caucus Friday night, and at 10:30 recess was taken until this morning at 9 o'clock. Unless Blackburn can prevail on the gold democrats to assist in unseating four republican senators, and to prevent other men from voting for Hunter, it is sure he will be elected.

Peach Crop Is Damaged.

Ligonier, Ind., March 13.—Fruit growers in Northern Indiana have concluded their investigations of the damage done to peach prospects by the severe cold weather and find that the crop will be almost a complete failure. The buds were frozen. The cold spell also injured smaller fruits, and the prospect for a bountiful crop is not flattering.

Gage Strikes a Snag.

Washington, March 13.—Secretary Gage ran against his first civil-service snag when he discovered that he could not remove the superintendent of the bureau of engraving and printing. The office is held by Claude M. Johnson of Kentucky and he can not be removed except on charges. The position pays $4,500 a year and is one of the most important in the department.

Bay View Mills Closed.

Bay City, Mich., March 13.—The ice in Saginaw bay gave way at an early hour Friday morning, and by noon had been driven ten miles toward Lake Huron, carrying with it more than ten fishermen and their shanties. This afternoon the wind shifted to the northwest, driving the body of ice to the east shore, thereby making the escape of the fishermen an easy matter.

Intruders Placed Under Arrest.

Price, Utah, March 13.—Information has been received at Fort Duchesne that Capt. Day has arrested about a dozen intruders on the Indian reservation and will bring them to the fort. No resistance was offered. The agency officials destroyed all the monuments and locations.

Saginaw Fishermen Escape.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 13.—Both the fish-plate and the old plate mills of the Illinois Steel company at Bay View will be closed. All the puddling will hereafter be done at South Chicago, where mills have been leased, and this will leave only six mills to be operated here.

St. Vitus Vanquished.

What Cured Little Stanley Nichol of Chorea.

From the Republican-Journal, Ogdensburg, N. Y.

A letter was lately received at the office of the Republican-Journal from Hammond to the effect that the cure of an extraordinary severe case of St. Vitus' dance had been effected on the person of little Stanley Nichol, the eight-year-old son of Mrs. Charles Nichol of that village.

A reporter was accordingly dispatched in that direction who, after some inquiry, found Mrs. Nichol's residence about a mile outside the village. Mrs. Nichol said:

"A little over a year ago my boy, Stanley Nichol, who is now only eight years old, alarmed me one day by being taken with a strange gurgling in his throat. After the first attacks became quite frequent, Stanley did not complain of any pain, but said that he could not help making the noise."

At that time there was a New York doctor stopping in the village who was a specialist on throat and nasal diseases. I took my son to him and after a careful examination he said that there was nothing the matter with the boy's throat. The gurgling in his opinion was caused by a nervous contraction of the muscles of the throat. He asked who our family physician was and said that he would consult with him before he prescribed.

"Stanley rapidly grew worse. He was always a sickly boy. One day I noticed that he was jerking his arm up in a very peculiar manner. A few days later he seemed to lose control of his legs, first one and then the other would be pulled up and then straightened out again. He was a perfect bundle of nerves and was rapidly losing all control of himself. When eating at the table or drinking, his arm would often twitch so as to spill what he was drinking. One day he scared me terribly by throwing back his head and rolling his eyes up so that only the white parts showed. I took him to our family physician who prepared some medicine for him. He took it and commenced to improve. The dose, however, had to be increased and Stanley rebelled against taking it. It was very disagreeable medicine and I don't blame the boy for not wishing to take it.

"Our physician went to New York city on business and while he was away the medicine became exhausted and we could get no more. Stanley was still very bad. About that time I read about a little girl who had been cured of St. Vitus' dance by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I thought I would try them and procured a box. I followed the directions that came with pills, and gave only half a pill at a dose. I did not see much improvement and increased the dose to a whole pill. The effect was noticed in a day. Stanley immediately commenced to get better and did not object to taking the pills as he had the other medicine. He took seven boxes of the pills and to-day appears to be perfectly well. He discontinued taking them some time ago. He weighs nearly fifteen pounds more than he did and is strong and hearty. A year ago he took him out of school but he is so much better now that he is going to begin again this fall."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are sold in boxes (never in loose form, by the dozen or hundred) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or directly by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

MEN ARE MENTIONED FOR CITY OFFICES

REPUBLICANS TALK OF POSSIBLE CANDIDATES.

Several Men are Talked of in Connection with the Nominations for Mayor City Clerk and Street Commissioner—Ward Ticket Timber is also Being Sought Out.

Alphabetically arranged, the men mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for mayor are as follows:

Carpenter, Edwin F., Third ward. Child, Clinton D., Second ward. Hedges, Stuart B., First ward. Hyzer, Edward M., Third ward. Macdon, William H. H., Fourth ward.

Marzluff, F. M., Fourth ward. Thoroughgood John, Second ward. The friends of ex-Mayor Thoroughgood, and President of the Council Hedges are the only ones who seem to be making any active canvass. Mr. Child is quoted as saying that he is "simply taking observations." Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Marzluff have been mentioned, but it is not known that any of them have expressed themselves in regard to the matter or whether they have even heard of the movements in their behalf. Mr. Macdon, also, it is said, is "in the hands of his friends." That any one of these gentlemen would make an excellent mayor goes without saying.

Candidates For Other Offices.

In connection with the office of city clerk several names are mentioned. Alderman E. Ray Iman is frequently spoken of in connection with the office, and Fred L. Clemons' friends are talking of his chance, while City Clerk Badger who has served the city in that capacity for two years, is a candidate for re-election.

Street Commissioner Watson is a candidate for re-election, and C. F. Lester of the Third ward has announced his candidacy. J. A. Denison, it is said, would also make the race if he was nominated, although he is not making a canvass. J. L. Bear and Mr. Anderson who has been employed by Commissioner Watson also said to be candidates.

There seems to be no opposition to the renomination of T. W. Goldin as school commissioner at large.

No candidates for city attorney have yet been mentioned, and in all probability Justice L. F. Patten will be again nominated.

For sealer of weights and measures no candidates have been brought forward. Ticket timber is being brought out in all the wards.

A SPRING VALLEY LAW SUIT

The Plaintiff Got a Judgment For $100 At Orfordville.

A judgment was rendered against Patrick Murray of Spring Valley in the justice court at Orfordville, for the sum of $100. The trouble grew out of the rental of a farm, belonging to Patrick Noon, of the town of Spring Valley. Mr. Noon rented his farm to Charles Roberts of Magnolia, but Murray claiming he had a verbal contract for same place, refused Roberts the right to move his farm implements; hence the law suit. Murray did not appear in court.

BEYOND THE CARES OF EARTH. James Nash.

James Nash died at 11:15 o'clock last night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nash, No. 8 Adams street, after an illness of two years duration, for three months of which he was confined to his bed. Plurisy and throat trouble caused his death. He was twenty-five years old and unmarried. Besides his parents he leaves two brothers, John and Thomas of this city, and four sisters, Mrs. Nellie Hunter and Miss Mary Nash of this city, and Miss Sarah Nash of Chicago, and Mrs. Maggie Dowd also of this city. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

FUNERAL OF MISS CONWAY. The funeral of Miss Maggie Conway was held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. The casket was half hidden with flowers among which was a floral pillow the gift of the Senior scholars of the High school. Rev. E. M. McGinnity officiated and the church was filled with friends. The interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery and the pall bearers were Joseph Connors, Michael McGue, Edward Welsh, John Nash, Michael Griffin and Edward Connors.

Mrs. Catherine Koblin. Mrs. Catherine Koblin died Thursday evening at her home near this city, on the Carter farm. Mrs. Koblin was well known and many friends will be pained to hear of her demise. Four daughters, Mrs. T. Mosher and Miss Mary Koblin of this city, and Mrs. Cook and Miss Clara Koblin of Chicago, and one son are left to mourn her loss. The funeral will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock and the interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

MATTER TO BE PUT BEFORE PEOPLE.

Temperance Advocates Say They will Make a Vigorous Fight Against the Licensing of Saloons—Have Nearly Enough Names on Their Petition, and Will Get the Rest.

An effort to unite all local milk dealers and blacksmiths for mutual benefit is being made. The local Trades Council held a meeting in Labor Union hall last evening to consider the matter and committees were appointed to confer with all milk dealers as well as the smiths. The committees appointed were:

Blacksmiths—O. H. Kilmer, Edwin Kerry and J. Delaney.

Milkmen—Gus. Baker, Ernest Clemons and George Perkins.

The meeting was called to order by President M. H. Whitaker, there being a goodly number in attendance. It was said that for some time past certain milk dealers as well as blacksmiths in this city have complained to the union that they have not been making as much as a good living on account of the cheap prices that have prevailed. They said that something must be done in the way of adopting a regular scale of prices, and to this end they wished that the local Trades Council would appoint committees for the purpose of getting all dealers in the union.

A prominent member of the union stated this morning that an effort to organize local bar tenders and waiters will soon be made.

THEY WENT HOME.

Remarkable Story About a Yoke of Steers.

With the exception, possibly, of the anthropoid apes, the homing sense is possessed in a higher or lower degree by all animals; that is true also of the birds, says Lippincott's. The well-known exploits of the carrier pigeon are so familiar that they will scarcely need comment. The duck and the goose sometimes have this sense very highly developed. I once knew a goose to travel back home after being carried in a covered basket for the distance of eighteen miles. A drake and a duck, to my certain knowledge, traveled back to their old home, a distance of nine miles, after having been transported by railway. Instances of home-returning in dogs, cats, horses, etc., are of such common occurrence that I hardly need call attention to them; the following instance is so unique, however, that I will give it. In the fall of 1861, a gentleman of Vincennes, Ind., visited his father at Lebanon, Ky.; when he started to return home his father gave him a yoke of young steers, which he drove via Louisville to Vincennes. Shortly after his arrival the steers made their escape, swam the Ohio at Owensboro, Ky., 160 miles below Louisville and in a week or so were found one morning at the gate of their old home at Lebanon. Led by their sixth sense alone, these animals had made a journey of several hundred miles over a route entirely unknown by them. Fishermen are well aware of the fact that certain fish choose localities for their lurking places which they will share with no other fish. The black bass, brook trout, sturgeon and goggle-eye are familiar examples of the fish which have this habit. Some time ago I performed the following experiment: I took a black bass from its home near a sunken stump, and, after passing a thin, short piece of strong thread through the web of its tail and knotting it, replaced it in the river two miles below its lurking place. The next day I saw it in its old home, clearly recognizable by the bit of thread, which waved to and fro in the clear water as the fish moved its tail.

BALLROOM BICYCLING.

A Musical Ride at Lord and Lady Brassey's House.

The all-conquering bicycle has had many triumphs, but its latest conquest is its greatest, says the London Mail. It has invaded the ballroom and when Lord and Lady Brassey gave their ball of the season at Government house, Melbourne, some weeks ago, a musical ride on bicycles was an important item in the program. It was an adaptation of the musical ride of the Household Brigade.

The ladies wore cycling costumes of pale blue blouses, with dark-blue ties and dark-blue skirts. The dress of the men was a return to knee breeches and stockings, and in color harmonized with the dresses of the ladies. Some days before the ball a rehearsal was held in a large suburban drill room with peculiarly appropriate environments, for a ball had been held the night before. The floor was so highly polished that French chalk had to be used to minimize that dread of all cyclists, side-slipping. Both the figures and the commands indicated a blend of the cavalry ride and the quadrille. Although one lady in particular came down several times, she did it so deftly that there was barely an interruption to the movement. Another lady in a Holland costume, turning sharply too near the wall, was unseated, but remounted so quickly that only an expert cyclist could detect that the movement was not a part of the rehearsal. We have not yet heard how the real ride went off, the mail not having brought the account to hand.

The Reformer.

Before the monstrous wrong he sets him down,
One man against a stone-walled city of sin.
For centuries those walls have been a-building;
Smooth porphyry, they slope and coldly glass
The flying storm and wheeling sun.
No chink,
No crevice lets the thinnest arrow in.
He fights alone, and from the cloudy ramparts
A thousand evil faces jibe and jeer him.
Let him lie down and die: what is the right
And where is justice in a world like this?
But by and by earth shakes herself impatient;
And down, in one great roar of ruin, crash
Watch-tower and citadel and battlements.
When the red dust has cleared, the lonely soldier
Stands with strange thoughts beneath the friendly stars.

—E. R. SILL.

The Root of All Sin.

The sin which is going to condemn the world is the root of all sin; it is the willful refusal of God's priceless gift. A life of outward sin is the result of an impenitent soul. The disease of sin has laid fast hold of mankind, and while man is not blamable for the disease being in his heart God accounts it the sin of sins if he refuses the sole remedy for his recovery. —"Mr. Moody's Bible Class" in the Ladies' Home Journal.

Girls in the Coal Pits.

Miss Olive Logan gives an interesting account of the agitation instituted by a wealthy English woman, Miss Muller, opposing legislation against the interest of poor girls who work at the mouths of the coal pits. Some prudish people claimed that the costume worn by these girls, which is actually necessary in their work, was immoral. A measure prohibiting it had been introduced, had passed the commons and was about to pass the house of lords, when Miss Muller, having acquainted herself with the facts in the case, determined to prevent it.

She took a delegation of pit women from Northumberland to London at her own expense, hired a large hall in the Strand and called a mass meeting. The girls, dressed in their working clothes, sat beside the speakers, who in turn told the people what a cruel thing it would be to deprive these poor girls of their inherited occupation, as sometimes whole families were dependent upon their labors. The women were urged with loud cheers to go on with the crusade. The girls were taken to the house of lords, and when the titled members saw the modest looking women dressed in a respectable costume of serge trousers reaching to their feet and flannel blouses hanging below their knees and heard the hardships that would result from the suppression of their labor they threw out the bill.

Miss Logan says she never ascertained the names of those who so nearly succeeded in having the bill made a law, but was told they belonged to that class referred to by Mrs. Browning as "good Christians, who sit still in easy chairs and damn the general world for standing up."

A Famous Woman Sculptor.

Mr. Forrest Crissey, in his article on "Women Sculptors of Chicago," in The Woman's Home Companion, says of Miss Julia M. Bracken:

"With a jackknife she whittled from blocks of wood designs which brought her to the attention of several prominent citizens of Galena, and ultimately resulted in opening the way for her to attend the Chicago Art Institute. At first she entered the drawing class, but very soon 'dropped into sculpture' before entering the regular modeling course. That the hand of fate and not a fickleness of purpose wrought this change was soon evidenced by modeling sufficiently brilliant to not only startle her associates, but to bring her orders before she had taken a single regular lesson in the art of sculpture."

"When Mr. Taft returned from a trip abroad and this shy, slender young stranger from the country was first seen by him at her work in the modeling room, he was surprised into the remark that 'she handles the clay as if it were her native element.' Miss Bracken was at once engaged as an assistant in his studio, where she remained for seven years. At the World's fair she was his chief of staff and had charge of the troop of young women who worked under his direction upon the decorations of the horticultural building."

"The latest piece from Miss Bracken's studio is a fine bust of Sir Moses Montefiore, the celebrated Jewish philanthropist of London, who died at the age of more than 100 years. She is now engaged on a relief medallion for the Union soldiers' monument at Missionary Ridge, Tenn. It represents a stirring scene, contains five portrait figures and is a strong piece of work."

The Woman's Council.

Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson, in her admirable paper on "The National Council of Women of the United States," in The Arena, aptly says:

"From their first efforts to help men in their beneficent projects, women were like those who, finding a slow old boat making its way through a canal, were ready to supply the means to push or pull it forward. When their eyes were opened, they began to see new needs and to make new projects of their own, and in their eagerness they not only built new boats, but there and there attempted to dig new canals running parallel with the old, passing through the same region, yet separate and distinct. Now, after more or less lonely years of pushing and pulling, both men and women have discovered that united crafts can be propelled by united forces, and that one channel is better than two for boats that go one way freighted with the same supply for the selfsame hunger and need."

For a time we shall go on inducing women to help in the organized work of men and men to aid in the organized work of women, because each needs the other for the completion of much that is begun. But they read not aright the signs of the times, nor keep abreast of the age's progress, who are not looking for a day when organizations of men and organizations of women will be working together, not for the benefit of one or the other separately, but in full recognition that separation is impossible, and working in full accord in thought and hope and toil for the ultimate good of all.

Gloves are worn extravagantly long this winter, since no sleeve at all on an evening toilet is quite as common as a drape of some kind. A monogram worked in silks or threads of gold often decorates the tops.

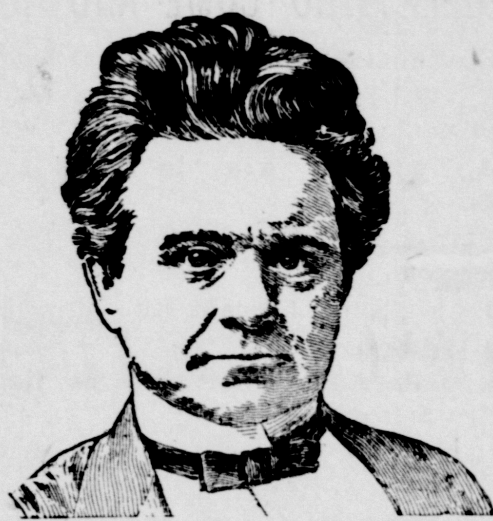

Mexican women are never employed as bookkeepers, cashiers, stenographers, typewriters or saleswomen or in any branches of industry wherein woman can earn her own living.

PROFESSOR J. M. MUNYON.

Professor Munyon is honored today as the leading authority in the medical world. His new and humane methods of treatment have swept away all the old-fashioned ideas of doctoring with poisonous drugs that create a dozen diseases in the effort to get rid of one. He does not claim that he has one remedy that will cure all complaints, but that he has prepared a specific cure for nearly every disease. He does claim that Munyon's Rheumatism Cure will cure rheumatism; that Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is a positive cure for all stomach troubles; Munyon's Cough Cure cures coughs; Munyon's Catarrh Remedies cure catarrh; Munyon's Kidney Cure cures kidney troubles. The same may be said of all Munyon's different remedies. They may be obtained at all drug stores, mostly at 25 cents a bottle.

Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

"STONE OF SCONE."

The Schoolboy Who Slept in the Coronation Chair.

It is a long walk from the dining room of the Westminster school to the coronation chair, which stands behind the old stone screen, just back of the altar in the abbey, but there is an interesting connection between the two. The chair, as is well known, is a rude, heavy oak chair, much worn by time. It contains the "Stone of Scone," and was made by the order of Edward I. in 1297, and every English sovereign since then has sat in it to be crowned. A stout railing in front of the chair restrains the crowd of visitors from coming near, but if they were allowed to examine it as closely as I was fortunate enough to do, they would find cut boldly into the solid oak seat, in such sprawling letters as the schoolboy's knife makes upon his desk, "P. Abbott slept in this chair January 4, 1801." P. Abbott, it seems, was a Westminster school boy, and a tradition, which there is every reason to believe is true, tells that he made a wager with a schoolmate that he dare stay in the abbey all night alone. In order to win his wager he hid in some corner of the old building until the doors were locked for the night and thus was left alone there. Fearing, however, that when morning came the boy with whom he had made the bet would disbelieve his statement that he had won it, he determined to have some proof of the fact, and so spent the hours of the early morning in carving on the coronation chair the sentence which, even now, nearly a century after, bears witness for him. It is disappointing that the tradition does not record just what form and amount of punishment was visited upon the lad for his escapade, and that history does not tell us of his later years. I wonder whether the courage and grit which this deed manifested foretold an energetic, successful life, or was dissipated in mere bravado.—St. Nicholas.

An Elaborate Apron.

An apron suitable for dressy occasions may be made, very elaborate. Fancy tends toward a thick, creamy satin, which would be quite an irresistible material for the apron, and its richness would make a plain style preferable to any fussy arrangement. Of satin about twenty-two inches wide you will want three-quarters of a yard for the skirt part, and another three-quarters to cut some bands, a little V-shaped pocket and a small, plain bodice, which, by the way, is merely a square press with the fullness drawn into the waist on the upper part of the band, whilst the gathers from the skirt are stroked in beneath the lower edge of the said waistband. For trimming have a band an inch wide outlining the three sides of the bib, and three others two inches in depth going right around the skirt of the apron, while a very short one across the top of the pocket should be made of the same width as those on the bodice. Now, then, for a display of stitchery. Iron on these bands a floral border, of which you can buy a transfer impression by the yard or packet for a few cents, and this you must work in delicate washing silks, carrying out the natural shades of the blossoms you select. Trails of shaded Virginia creeper would make a very suitable pattern, the leaves in hues of crimson, green, yellow and russet brown, with dark veinings, or pale pink dog roses, with tiny sprigs of blue and pink forget-me-nots meandering in and out, would make another pleasant scheme of color. As the value and beauty of this apron depend on the fineness of work on the borders, do not adopt the outline stitch, but rather fill up your flowers and leaves thoroughly, using much discretion and taste in the blending of your shades; if, however, you deem this too troublesome a task, you can modify your labor by selecting instead of the floral design a conventional pattern which might be worked in coral stitch, not outline, as that would be to thin, but the coral stitch on sprays, scrolls, and leaves works up very rapidly and effectively. Carry out the design in tones of soft and dark green.

The Canon Had Enough.

An English canon of note used to tell a good story of himself. In his capacity of magistrate he was once visiting the county jail, and expatiated to a friend who was with him on the virtues of the treadmill. Warning with his theme, he declared that he often wished that he had one at home to give him the gentle exercise he required, but was too lazy to take, except under compulsion; and, to remove his friend's skepticism, he asked the warder to give him a turn.

Round went the mill, the canon declaring that the movement was delightful; but after two minutes of it he had had quite enough, and called on the officer to stop the mill. To his horror the officer answered:

"Very sorry, sir; I can't. It's timed to go 15 minutes, and won't stop before."

Dance in Church.

There was a curious, and to many English people an incredible, sight to have been seen in Seville recently, viz., a dance in a church. Saturday was the Feast of the Assumption and one of the four days on which the dance is performed, the others being the first two days of the carnival and the Feast of the Purification. It is danced by eight small boys, and its measure is slow—that of a minuet.

Spring Medicine

Experience teaches the importance of special care of the health.

And fixed among the important principles of hygiene and health is the acknowledged necessity of a good Spring Medicine.

Just as firmly established by the experiences of millions of people, is the positive fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla is "far and away" the best blood purifier and spring medicine ever produced.

The necessity is found in the impure condition of the blood at this season, owing to the close confinement and breathing vitiated air in office, store, shop, house, schoolroom or factory; excessive eating and drinking too rich and hearty food; late hours and social indulgences. With the blood thus thick and impure, the machinery of life grinds hard.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood, builds up and strengthens the nerves and tones the stomach. It oils up the machinery of the whole body; the liver takes up its work anew, the kidneys resume activity, the ache goes out of the back, the bowels are regulated, the appetite restored, the food is relished and assimilated.

Don't wait till you are thoroughly sick before you begin to take a Spring Medicine.

Lock the door before the horse is stolen.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now as a preventive and it will pay you a thousand fold in health and strength through the coming summer.

"We always take several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family every spring as a tonic and blood purifier and we find that it overcomes that tired feeling gives new life, and keeps us well all summer." WM. RINGEL, 813 5th Ave., Peoria, Illinois.

Excellent Spring Medicine.

"For a number of years I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla in the spring, not for any particular ailment, but on general principle, that the system needs a tonic at this time, and I have always found Hood's Sarsaparilla a most excellent spring medicine." HAKON HAMMER, Engineer, Pottstown, Pennsylvania.

That Tired Feeling.

"I was troubled with that tired feeling all the spring. I purchased three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken about half of it I was feeling well again. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be an excellent blood purifier and tonic." MISS ORA E. MORGAN, Busey, Illinois.

Builds up the Health.

"We take Hood's Sarsaparilla as a tonic in the spring. Two of our children had tonsillitis and their blood was in a bad condition. Hood's Sarsaparilla built them up, and we have taken it again this spring with much benefit." MRS. P. H. CAHOON, Pleasant Lake, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. There is no substitute for Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1, six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. The One True Blood Purifier.

Conundrum: What is it that grows in winter as well as summer.
Answer: Our business.
Reasons: many.
If you are not a customer we invite you.

SPRING lines are fast filling up, eastern packages come to us every day with the brightest and freshest goods from import order. Dry Goods, Silks, Curtains, Wash Goods, Embroideries, Laces, Linens, Handkerchiefs, Braids, Gimps.

Separate Skirts--

It costs more to start a railroad train than it does to run it many miles after it is started. So also with a cloak department. That's why we keep it going--no more than through with one season when we are ready for you with the newest for the next. Separate Skirts are a decided go. Ours are cut and finished right fine gores, narrow front, circular sides. The hang of them is beyond criticism. Beautiful Skirts of velour, silk, etamine, canvas--taffeta, percale or silk lined.

Hoary old winter will flit around in the lap of gentle spring for several weeks yet, so prudent people will continue to take advantage of the present Jacket snap--half and less.

The "Brunswick" Dress Stay--

Superior quality woven casing, metal ends covered with leather tips (a new idea), highly recommended by leading dressmakers, in solid lengths--6, 7, 8, 9, 10 inch; also in sets--pink, blue, red, brown, slate, old gold, black, white. Per set 15c, per dozen 20c.

"Maxine Elliot" Collars and Cuffs--

For ladies--the latest fad in white collars and cuffs; all sizes. Collars 15c, Cuffs 20c.

Waist Silks--

Neat checks in Taffeta Silks for waists, black and white checks in four sizes, also all the colors and combinations; 75c and $1.00.

will be turned upside down more of the time if you use Santa Claus Soap. If you do your own washing this means rest for you. If you hire it done, it means money for you. If time is ever elaborately thrown away, it is over a wash tub with a poor soap.

Santa Claus Soap

is made to wash clothes as they should be washed. It distinguishes friend from foe--your clothes from the dirt--and spares one while it strikes the other. You must use soap; why not the best? Suppose you are now suited,--you will feel no worse when you are better suited. Try Santa Claus. Santa Claus Soap has long been made and has friends everywhere. Sold everywhere. Made only by
